- (3) A Member desiring to bring any business before a Meeting may give Notice of that business in writing to the Secretary, who shall include that business in the Notice calling the next General Meeting after the receipt of the Notice.

PROCEDURE OF GENERAL MEETINGS - PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS

13. (1) All business that is transacted at a Special General Meeting and all business that is transacted at the Annual General Meeting with the exception of that specially referred to in these Rules as being the ordinary business of the Annual General Meeting shall be deemed to be special business.
- (2) No item of business shall be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum of Voting Members is present during the time when the Meeting is considering that item.
- (3) 15 Voting Members personally present constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a General Meeting.
- (4) If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the Meeting shall be dissolved unless a majority of the Voting Members then present resolve to adjourn the Meeting. If within half an hour after the appointed time for commencement of the adjourned Meeting a quorum is not present then the Meeting shall dissolve.

14. (1) The President, or in his absence, the President-Elect shall preside as Chairman at each General Meeting of the Society.
(2) If the President and the President-Elect are absent from a General Meeting, the Members present shall elect one of their number to preside as Chairman at the Meeting.
15. (1) The Chairman of a General meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the Meeting, adjourn the Meeting from time to time (but for no more than 14 days) and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting at which the adjournment took place.
(2) It is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned Meeting.
16. A question arising at a General Meeting of the Society shall be determined on a show of hands and unless before or on the declaration of the show of hands a poll is demanded; a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Society is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.
17. (1) Upon any question arising at a General Meeting of the Society, a Member has one vote only.
(2) All votes shall be given personally.
(3) In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the chairman of the Meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
18. (1) If at a Meeting a poll on any question is demanded by not less than ten members, it shall be taken at that meeting in such a manner as the Chairman may direct and the resolution of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the Meeting on that question.
(2) A poll that is demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of an adjournment shall be taken forthwith and a poll that is demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time before the close of the Meeting as the Chairman may direct.
19. A Member is not entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all monies due and payable by him to the Society have been paid.
20. There shall be no voting by proxy.

COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

21. (1) The affairs of the Society shall be managed by a Committee of Management constituted as provided in Rule 22.
(2) The Committee:
  - (a) shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Society;
  - (b) may, subject to these Rules, the Regulations and the Act, exercise all such powers and functions as may be exercised by the Society other than those powers and functions that are required by these Rules to be exercised by General Meetings of the Members of the Society; and

  - (c) the Chairman of the Committee;
  - (d) the Senior Vice-Chairman of the Committee;
  - (e) the Junior Vice-Chairman of the Committee.
(2) The President-Elect of the Society shall be elected from among the Voting Members of the Society by the Committee prior to the Annual General Meeting in each year and when elected shall hold office for one year commencing on the expiration of the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

(3) Upon the expiration of his term of office, the President-Elect shall become the President of the Society for the ensuing year.

(4) The President and the President-Elect shall be Members ex-officio of the Committee but shall not be entitled to vote at any Meetings thereof nor shall they be counted in forming a quorum thereat.

(5) At a Meeting of the Committee to be held within 24 hours after the declaration of the poll referred to in Rule 9(3)(c) each year, the Committee shall elect from its Members a Chairman, a Senior Vice-Chairman and a Junior Vice-Chairman to hold office for the ensuing year.

(6) In the event that the office of President shall other than in the usual course become vacant, the President-Elect shall become President and shall subject to these Rules hold office for the balance of his predecessors term and then for his normal one year term.

(7) In the event that the office of President-Elect shall other than in the usual course become vacant then the Committee shall elect a Voting Member of the Society to the Office and the Member so elected shall, subject to these Rules, hold office for the balance of his predecessor's term.

(8) Subject to Section 23 of the Act, the Committee shall consist of twelve Members being:

(a) the Officers of the Society referred to in sub-clause (1) (c), (d) and (e), and

(b) 9 ordinary members -

each of whom shall be elected to the Committee at Annual General Meetings of the Society as in these Rules provided.

(9) A Member of the Committee shall, subject to these Rules, hold office until the close of the second Annual General Meeting next after the date of his election but is eligible for re-election.

(10) At the first Annual General Meeting of the Society held after its incorporation, six Members of the Committee (who shall be selected at random by the Chairman of that Meeting) shall retire but shall be eligible for re-election.

(11) In the event that the office of Chairman, Senior Vice-Chairman or Junior Vice-Chairman shall other than in the usual course become vacant (but not that person's membership of the Committee) then the vacant office shall be filled by the Committee electing one of its Members to that office. The Member elected to the vacant office shall subject to these Rules hold office for the balance of his predecessor's term.

(12) In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the Committee (as distinct from an office of the Society only) it may be filled, at the discretion of the Committee, by either:

(a) a by-election to which the provisions of Rules 23 shall apply (with a date fixed by the Committee instead of the date of the Annual General Meeting being the date for declaration of the poll and the provisions as to notice and the like relating to that date); or

(b) declaring the highest polling losing nominee from the previous Annual election as elected and so on until the vacancy is filled and the Member elected to office shall subject to these Rules hold office until his predecessors term would have expired in accordance with sub-clause (9). Except that the Committee may defer making an appointment if the casual vacancy occurs within 90 days of the next Annual General meeting of the Society.

(13) All Members of Committee shall be eligible for re-election upon the expiration of their terms.

23. (1) Nominations of candidates for election as members of the Committee:

(a) shall be made in writing, signed by two nominators, being voting Members of the Society and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination) and;

(b) shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Society not less than 45 days before the date fixed for the holding of the Annual General Meeting; and

(c) may be made by any Voting Member of the Society.

(2) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the Committee, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and the highest polling losing nominees from the previous Annual Election shall in order be deemed to be elected until, if possible, all vacancies are filled. No nominations in respect of any vacancy shall be received at the Annual General Meeting.

(3) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.

(4) If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot shall be held as follows:

(a) a ballot paper giving in alphabetical order the names of all Members duly nominated as candidates and the number of vacancies to be filled initialed by the Secretary (or some Member appointed by the Committee for that purpose) shall be sent to all voting Members with the Notice of the Annual General Meeting;
